Peter/Tracy,

Hopefully you didn't quit or jump out a window after seeing the subject line of this email. This is a list of primarily mandate relief initiatives that we want to do in one omnibus bill. Let me know if you need more direction on any of these items listed.

Also, could you update me on the progress of our "misuse of school district technology" (looking at porn at school) draft? I know there were some questions in the past and just want to make sure you have what you need.

Thanks,

- 13) Repeal this statute: No more than 200 days of school per year (s. 119.18
(6)(a), Wis. Stats.)
[Note: This applies only to the Milwaukee Public Schools.]

Together, sections 119.18(6) and (6)(a), Wis. Stats allow the MPS Board of Directors to determine the school calendar and vacation periods for each school year for the regular day schools, summer schools, social centers and playgrounds, except that the period of teaching service in the regular day schools shall not exceed 200 days, including the legal holidays and educational convention days on which the schools are closed.

Given the demonstrated achievement gap and graduation rates issues confronting MPS, this limitation makes no sense.
